Curriculum

It was great to see many of you on Wednesday evening. We hope you got all the information that you needed and now know a little bit more of all that we are covering this term.

The children have been introduced to 'How we used to Live', a super drama following a family through WW2. They have then started a journal, following the family's adventures.

After creating their flat evacuees, the children have been working on a back story, for their character, which has been great fun!

Art carousel has started well, with bunting making, 1940s houses and portraits.

In maths we are continuing to work on partitioning, rounding and recognising large numbers. In class maths they are working so hard on measuring and scale
