

Just to let you know...

Maths

Maths this week has been full of fractions and decimals! The children have been finding fractions of amounts and converting from one to the other. We have looked at number lines and used them to locate decimals and their equivalents. Have a look here for more info!

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/ks2/maths/>

Oliver Cromwell

Literacy
The Civil War!
It wasn't very civil!
Are you a Roundhead or a Cavalier?
Do you - A) like Christmas and fine dining and a kings absolute rule?
Or
B) Circular shaped hats, a complete ban on having fun and a fair and democratic society
The children have been hard at work learning all about the English civil war and

Neasden Temple

Next Wednesday we have our trip to Neasden Temple. You should have already received a letter about this. We are looking for helpers; if you offered to help on the Hampton Court trip but didn't come please let us know and we will prioritise you. Just to remind you that the children will all need to be wearing long sleeves and trousers. They will also need a packed lunch.

Spelling

grievous glorious serious furious curious cautious generous nervous

Lists

courageous dangerous delicious precious ambitious nervously cautiously miraculously

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY!

26th November- Neasdon Temple
28th Nivember- Christmas Fayre
11th December- Tudor Fayre
15th December- yr 5 & 6 Disco

HOMEWORK

There is a task on equivalent fractions on Mathletics.
The children should make a 'Wow word' poster. This should be a colourful poster that might include hints on how to spell the word or what the word means. We will be sending home an example.