

Through the Window Year 4 Summer Term

English

- Window by Jeannie Baker – narrative from the perspective of the main character, apology letters
- Seed packets – descriptive and instructional writing
- Bluebell poems
- Bentley Copse adventure stories
- There's a Boy in the Girl's Bathroom by Louis Sachar
- Reading - individually and group or shared (topic-related) reading sessions
- Handwriting - topic-related pieces and writing patterns
- Dictionary & thesaurus use – linked to guided reading

Geography

- Local area study of the Downs, the Chantries and the River Wey (sketch maps)
- Habitat study
- Climates

Computing

- Using the internet as a research tool
- Using publisher to create a poster
- An Hour Of Code - Coding

Narrative

Exploring the Flora and Fauna in the natural world and understanding our responsibility to create a sustainable environment.

Maths

- Measure the growth of a plant
- Data collection, recording and analysis
- Measuring area and plotting frequency of plant growth on bar charts and graphs

Science

- Skills investigation
- Germination
- Parts of a flower
- Plant plumbing
- Photosynthesis
- Life cycle of a plant
- Life cycle of a human
- Reproduction of plants and animals
- Dispersal of seeds
- Identification of plants

Art

- Seed packet designs
- Bluebell still life
- Sketching
- Printing

Design and Technology

- Invention of new flower species
- Making a flower (with a variety of materials) showing the parts

Trips

- Regular use of Downs / Chantries
- Bentley Copse residential
- Dapdune Wharf

R.E. and Music

- Caring for God's World
- The changes to our world though the Christian faith
- Learning to play recorder