Wintershall Poem-By Millie Goody

Great cavern open, stone rolled away
Mary blinded by heavenly rays
Disciples unbelieving, wary
The thought of him resurrected is suddenly scary,
Fishing failing, nets on the wrong side
A man corrects them, their jaws hanging wide,
For this man was certainly not a gardener
It was Jesus Christ, son of our only father
And upon a mountain Jesus did ascend
As he could finally see the end
Of the hurt, the suffering, and the never ending pain,
And as Jesus floated through cloud and rain
There circled the sign of peace, a dove
For we shall see Jesus again in Heaven.
