

Curriculum News

Literacy: This week in our literacy sessions we have been finishing off our disaster story where the children have been working hard to incorporate their long term targets. On Thursday we used a range of media (including iPads!) to research an animal in preparation for writing a book in the style of Roger Hargreaves 'Mr Men' series. We are looking forward to writing our own 'Mr Animal' books! The children really enjoyed this and if there is an opportunity for them to do some further research at home, that would be great!

Numeracy: This week we have been consolidating and reviewing our learning on addition and subtraction. Next week we are moving on to focusing on the properties of 2D shape.

Topic: The Christmas play has used up our topic time this week but we are looking forward to starting our R.E Christmas project next week.
