TOPIC

We've finished compiling this term's topic books and the children are very excited to show them off to you next Monday afternoon.

In SPAG we have been investigating the verb prefix 'de' - meaning away and

- decode
- debunk
- decay
- dependent
- deform
- depend
- deprive
- delude
- defend

Spelling test will be every Wednesday.

(If your child has been given spellings from Heather P, they won't be learning these ones too.)

Dear Parents,
We've had a fantastically busy and fun packed week, being dominated by the wonderful Christmas production. Congratulations to all of Year 5, who sang and performed so beautifully.

Please join us from 2.30 on Monday, to see all the wonderful topic books on display in the Year 5 classes.

Our Christmas Church service is next Tuesday and we're in need of parents to help walk us to and from the church. We'll be leaving after lunch (just after 1pm) and will be walking back before the end of school. If you're able to help, please do email your class teacher.

Thank you!
Heather, Laura, Bec and Nick, x

RE

We have been looking at the prospect of waiting; especially during advent and in particular, what Christians are waiting for. We looked at the adorable John Lewis advert from a few years ago. Not many people guessed correctly what the little boy was so impatiently waiting for...can you?
