English

We have continued our work on story mapping (pictures which represent each sentence in a story.)

As a way of remembering the punctuation we have taught the children a version of 'Kung Fu' punctuation. This week the children made a story map of a letter to Santa. They used this to write their own letter which we have sent to The North Pole.

Dear Parents,

Thank you for all the wonderful costumes for 'Hey Ewe.' We are really looking forward to this next week and we hope you enjoy it. The children have worked so hard to learn the songs, dances and actions.

On Friday 15th December there is an optional late start.

You may bring your child in at any time before 10am.

(Breakfast club is as usual.)

Sound of the Week

The children have a festive word search this week. Well done to everyone for working so hard in their 'Sound of the Week' books. We have seen some great 'curly school writing' as well as some super phonics learning.

R.E

This week we looked carefully at classical paintings of the Nativity scene. We talked together about what we could see and why we thought the artist had chosen certain colours eg . Why the kings are kneeling, why is there gold colouring around Jesus, who is in the centre of each picture and why? We shared our ideas.
