Test: Monday 8th February.

This week we reinforced what a verb was. The children then wrote sentences putting in a verb and also replacing 'went' with a more exciting verb. The group drew their mythical monster. (What amazing, imaginative monsters they were) They also labelled the different features using adjectives. The group have now started their fantastic descriptions.

Your children should know which colour reading book they are on and how to change them. Please read with them as much as possible.
