'igh' as in flight

Sigh, thigh, light, fight, night, slight, flight, brightly.

Challenge– delight, frighten.

Please practise these words for a test on 2nd February

This week the children were looking at statements and questions while understanding the difference between them. They also wrote a diary entry as if they were a Roman citizen making sure they used time connectives.

children should know which colour reading book they are on and how to change them.
Please read with them as much as possible.
