

This week Year 6 have been continuing to write their Victorian stories, most of which should be near completion. They have also spent some time looking at complex sentences and incorporating these into their stories as part of the editing process. Why not ask your child to give you a summary of their Victorian story?

Throughout the week, Year 6 have also had the opportunity to take part in a topic activity ranging from making peg dolls, taking part in a court case and creating blueprints for new designs of the Penny farthing.

Just to let you know...
