*This week the children have been using question words - who, what , where, when, how, why and which
- to find out information about each other. This is prepare them for using question marks in their written work. We've also written our own sentences about the story of Moses which include connectives and adjectives.*

Your children should know which colour reading book they are on and how to change them. Please read with them as much as possible.
